

FallFest Celebration

September 8 – 11, 2009

FallFest is here! It's time to celebrate another year of rich diversity.

Sept. 8 — BBQ for Students, Midway Campus 3–6 p.m.

Sept. 9 — Student Appreciation Day and BBQ, Saint Paul Campus, New Main, Great Hall, 3–7 p.m. Students! Staff! Faculty! FREE services by Aveda include haircuts, massage and much more!

Sept. 10 — Metropolitan State University's Day of Service, a program of the national United We Serve initiative—President Obama has called on all Americans to participate in the nation's recovery and renewal by serving our communities.

Dinner with the Leaders, Saint Paul Campus, New Main, Great Hall, 4–6 p.m. This event is exclusively for the university community.

Sept. 11 — “Remembering 9/11...” Saint Paul Campus, Founders Hall, Auditorium, 9–10:30 a.m.

Welcome Back Carnival! Saint Paul Campus, Courtyard, 1–5:30 p.m. Activities are welcome to all ages.

uab.metrostate.edu

For more information: University Activities Board 651.793.1556.

Available in alternative formats; Disability Services, 651-793-1549.
An equal opportunity employer and educator. 8/2009

Metropolitan
State University

Many Faces Going Places

The celebration is made possible with the help of the following organizations:

ACCESS; African American Student Services; Asian American Student Services; *Center for Community Based Learning; *Equal Opportunity and Diversity Office; Gems Mentoring Program; Chicano/Latino Student Services; American Indian Student Services; *Student Life and Leadership Development; *Student Senate; Women and GLBT Student Services; The Metropolitan newspaper; and *University Activities Board.

* Major sponsors